THE NATIONAL UNION PARTY.

Governor Holden has laid the foundation for the national union party in North-Carolina. It has been the whole of his duty to do so, and unless the natural or unnatural perversity of human nature thwarts the plans of the governor and the wise men of the convention, there need be in North Carolin but one party —the national union party.—Raleigh Standard.

By all means let us have but that one party The national union party took form in the Albany convention, when its principles were declared to be—

Gratification at the termination of the civil war, with a preserved union;

The subordination of military to civil rule the restoration of the authority of the courts, and the recognition of the equality of the States;

Opposition to negro suffrage or any effort to force that measure upon the south;

Approval of President Johnson's plan for the speedy restoration of the states to their old position in the union;

Recognition of the obligation by which the whole resources of the country are pleged to the payment of the national debt;

Acquiescence in the doctrine commonly known as the Monroe doctrine, or America for the Americans; and finally.

That the frank and generous acceptance by the southern people of the condition in which they have been left by the recent war, including the abandonment of slavery, removes the main difficulties in the way of the restoration of amicable feeling among the states, and that it should be met on the part of the federal government in spirit of conciliation and kindness;

And that, banishing all minor party considerations, and acting in the spirit of an enlarged and generous patriotism, we cordially support President Johnson in the policy which he has avowed to enable the states lately in revolt to put their governments in practical operation, and in all such constitutional measures as he may inaugurate to harmonize the conntry and restore and cement the union of the states.

We submit that those who cannot stand upon such a platform are not sincerely loyal, and, therefore, are unde serving of membership in the great national union party.—Wil. Herald.

GENERAL NEWS.

New York, Oct. 24.—Cotton firm at fifty eight to fifty nine cents. Flour unchanged.—Wheat advanced one to two cents. Corn declined. Beef and Pork steady. Lard heavy. Whiskey firm.

New York, Oct. 23.—New counterfeit fifties, government legal tenders, have been discovered.

New York, Oct. 23.—Dates have been received from Charleston to the 19th inst.

Orr has 780 votes for Governor and General Hampton 661.

Gen. Howard, in an interview with the Mayor of Charleston, stated that he hoped that arrangements would soon be made, entirely satisfactory to the community, in relation to the freedmen's bureau.

Washington, Oct. 23.—The Wirz military commission were in secret session to day, deliberating upon the voluminous testimony elicited during the trial.

The steamers Rhode Island and Hornet have been sent to Havana to tow the Confederate ram Stonewall to Washington.

A. and G. Mosely, of Virginia, are among the number pardoned to day by the President.

New Rork, Oct. 23.–Mexican dates to the 15th via Havana 18th, have been received.

Maximillian has issued a proclamation officially announcing the departure of Juarez from the Mexican territory, and saying that the cause he had sustained with so much valor had succumbed not only to the national will, but according to the same laws this leader had invoked in support of his title. Even brigandage had disappeared with the departure of their leader from his native soil. He adds, however, that disorder was still kept up, but that the government would be inflexible in its punishment. He has also issued a decree announcing vigorous measures against all in arms.

Gen. E. Spinola has gone to Lower California to bring that portion of the Mexican territory under the sway of the empire.

Washington, Oct. 23.—A correspondence has transpired between Adams, the American Minister, and Earl Russell relative to the responsibility of England for the ravages committed by the vessels which were fitted out in England. Russell repudiates the liability and refuses arbitration.

Many amusing incidents, says a correspondent, might be recorded of pardon seekers at the White House. A day or two since Mr. Hilliard, of Georgia, former Minister to Belgium rushed up to the President, seized his hand "hoped his pardon would not be delayed." The President quietly remarked to the ex-reverend gentleman that "hope was the reward of the righteous," and vouchsafed no other reply. On another occasion a rebel of some notoriety raised quite a laugh by saying, "I thank you, Mr. President, for my pardon; I am now a good Union man, am emphatically one of you, but didn't Stonewall Jackson give us hell in the Vally."

A most disastrous hurricane occurred at Gaudaloupe on the 6th inst. It appears that until six o'clock in the evening of that day there was nothing to indicate an approaching storm, but at that hour the wind suddenly shifted to the northeast and blew most furiously.—In Grand Bourge, the town of Marie Galante, many houses were torn up and blown away piecmeal to considerable distances. Slates and sheets of zinc flew about in all directions. The public hospital was blown down, killing or wounding the inmates. In the qarter of Grand Bourg alone thirty-six persons were killed and fifty nine wounded. Basseterre and Saints also sufferred dreadfully. The loss of life and property must have been immense, but had not been ascertained when our accounts left.

Since the above was in type we have received confirmation of the sad news recorded above, and it appears the devastation and loss of life was still greater than we at first supposed.—The loss of life is now stated between two and three hundred. The crops of the island have been destroyed, and scarcely a tree is to be seen standing. Beyond a heavy sea and heavy gale the huricane was not felt in the other West India Islands.

Jackson, Miss., Oct. 20.—J. L. Alcorn was to day elected Senator for the long term, commencing March 4th, 1865, on the fifth ballot by a majority of ninteen. Mr. Alcorn is the present representative from the Coahoma district.

The Missouri delegate sent from the Fenian Congress on a mission to Washington with reference to the unconditional release of John Michell, prisoner at Fortress Monroe, reports that he has been successfull, and that the order for that purpose will soon be issued. A similar statement is repeated in other quarters.

Captain Wirz, on Saturday, underwent a private medical examination, at his own request, in presence of the members comprising the military commission and Mr. Schade, one of his counsel. His right arm is much swolen and inflamed from the effects of a wound by a shell. A piece of the bone had been removed, rendering the limb of little, if any, use.

A gentleman who witnessed the examination also says that his body bore marks of his having suffered from scurvy.

Messrs. Clay and Mitchell were transferred to their new quarters at Caroll Hall, on Friday evening last.

New York, Oct. 20.—The Tribune's Paris letter of the 6th instant, says that the deaths from cholera in Paris are said to be two hundred per day. There has been no rain since August 15th, and there is great scarcity of water.

London letters repeat the reports before published about the cholera. and there is nothing additional except that precautionary measures appear to have prevented the extension of the disease.

Washington, Oct. 20.—The court room was crowded to-day with persons, attracted by the final proceedings in the trial of Capt. Wirz. The prisoner being still feeble, reclined upon a sofa. The concluding speech of Colonel Chipman, judge advocate, was very lengthy, embracing several hundred pages of legal cap, and occupied four hours in delivery.—He will finish to-morrow, when the case will be given to the Commission, who will deliberate upon it in secret, and forward their findings for executive scrutiny.

Halifax, Oct. 20.—The steamship Circassian, from Bremen for New York, with 650 passengers and 459 tons of freight, is ashore in Rock Bay, near Arional, Cape Breton. The vessel lays on a sandy beach. She had sprung a leak and the Captain was obliged to run her ashore to save her, the water being up to the grate bars. The passengers and cargo are safe.

The Missouri delegate sent from the Fenian Congress on a mission to Washington with reference to the unconditional release of John Mitchell, prisoner at Fortress Monroe, reports that he has been successful, and that the order for that purpose will soon be issued. A similar statement is repeated in other quarters.

Louisville, Oct. 20.—The guerrilla Henry C. Magruder, in pursuance of his sentence, was hanged in the yard of the military prison this afternoon.

MARRIAGE IN VERY HIGH LIFE.—Brigadier General James P. Brownlow, of the Federal army, son of Rev. Dr. William G. ELECTIONS.

The Elections for Governor, Representatives to Congress, and Members of Assembly, Sheriffs and Clerks, will take place on Thursday, the 9th day of November, 1865.

National Union Andrew Johnson Ticket!

FOR GOVERNOR,

WILLIAM W. HOLDEN,

OF WAKE COUNTY.

We are authorized to announce Dr. J. G. RAMSAY a candidate for Congress in the 6th District, composed of the counties of Rowan, Cabarrus, Mecklenburg, Union, Gaston, Lincoln, Catawba, Iredell, Alexander, Wilkes, Yadkin, and Davie. dte126

THOMAS McNEELY

Announces himself as a candidate for the office, as Clerk of the Superior Court of Rowan, at the ensuing election.

Oct. 18, 1865. ted126

☞ We are authorized to announce WILLIAM A. WALTON, as a candidate for the office of Sheriff for Rowan County.

We are authorized to announce A. W. OWEN, a Candidate for the office of County Court Clerk of Rowan, at the ensuing election.

☞ We are authorized to announce OBADIAH WOODSON, a candidate for the office of County Court Clerk of Rowan, at the ensuing election.

We are authorized to announce J. P. MARLIN, of Rowan, as a candidate for the House of Commons of the next General Assembly.

☞ We are authorized to announce Col. B. S. GAITHER, as a candidate for U. S. Congress, from the 7th Congressional District. He endorses the administration of President Johnson and will give it his cordial support.

☞ We are authorized to announce SOLOMON KLUTTS, Esq., as a candidate for re-election to the office of Sheriff, of Rowan County.

Who are the Candidates.

Under this caption, in our paper of yesterday morning, we noticed that several gentlemen had been spoken of as being suitable candidates to represent Rowan in the Commons at the ensuing election; among whom was Mr. Joseph K. Burke, but since this announcement was made, we have been requested by Mr. Burke to say, that he would under no circumstances consent to be a candidate. We are sorry that Mr. B. is so positive on the subject, for we know his numerous friends would be most happy to give him their support.

But there will be no lack of candidates however. Mr. J. P. Marlin, a young man of irreproachable character, has announced himself a candidate, and it is to be hoped that he will be cordially supported. He will make a good representative.

Mr. J K. Graham has, also, announced his purpose to run. We know little of his prospects, and will not undertake to say that he is a gentleman of marked ability, or of personal popularity; but it is generally conseded that he is good on a race, and in this case, it is hard to tell the result.

There will, doubtless, be several others, but it will be time enough to speak of their merits and demerits, when they become public property.

We think it proper that those gentlemen who have already come out, as well as those who may do so hereafter, should make known to the people whom they will support for Governor.

Since writing the above David L. Bringle, Esq., has brought in his card which will be found in another column. That Mr. Bringle's prospects are better than any other candidate, yet announced, we doubt not.

But we have no idea that he will be allowed to run over the tract without formidable opposition.

General Sherman is on an excursion to the western terminus of the Missouri Pacific Railroad.

Court of Claims.

Is North Carolina determined to be forever behind in all matters of public policy? Is she to be always in the rear? Shall the other States continue to lead? We hope not. North Carolina has as much talent as any State in, or, at present, out of the Union, and there can be no good reason why she does not, at least, keep pace with them.

In Virginia a court of claims have been appointed. The question of money, as between the relative values of Confederate and Greenbacks, has been fixed, so also, that of rents &c., &c. Why has not North Carolina had such a court?—will some one give us a good reason for this delay?

A CARD

To the Voters of Rowan County.

The undersigned offers himself as an independent candidate to represent you in the House of Commons at the ensuing Legislature. I deem it unnecessary to review my antecedents in connection with the late war, as they are too well known by you to require comments. If elected, I pledge myself to give to the administration of President Johnson the support it demands, and will use every exertion consistent with honor, to procure a speedy withdrawal of U. States troops from the State, and to facilitate reconstruction by the admission of North Carolina to a full participation in all the rights and powers of a State, under the Federal Constitution.

As regards the election of other offices, the statement of any preference I may feel for candidates for any other office, would seem like dictation on my part, and I shall refrain from doing so, as I think every man should vote according to the dictates of his judgment and conscience.

I am uncompromisingly opposed to negro suffrage, restricted or general, in any manner shape or form.

If elected, I shall vote for a Commissioner to recover property belonging to the State, improperly taken during the war, so as to lighten your taxes as much as possible. I shall also favor the election of Magistrates, Judges, and other officers, by the people—as I regard the people the best judges of those who would suit them. I shall also favor hard work, short speeches and short sessions of the Legislature to lessen our expenses. I am a plain man, sprung from the people—one of yourselves—my feelings and sympathies are with the people—I think I understand them, and if elected, believe I can reflect their wishes. Your ob't servant,

D. L BRINGLE.

A CASE OF SHAME AND CRIME—A MOTHER DESERTS HER CHILD.—About six weeks ago an apparently aged gentleman appeared at the house of a lady living on Market and Ninth streets, and engaged board and lodgings for a lady whom he represented to be his wife. A few days after the lady appeared herself, unaccompanied and made the assertion that she was the wife of the gentleman, and gave her name as Mrs. Jones; and her story seemed so complete that not a doubt was entertained of anything unusual until she gave birth to a child.—Nothing was yet expressed, although it appeared reasonable that under the circumstances the father would have been near. Not so, however. A few days after, he made his first visit to the house since the arrival of the supposed wife, remained but a short time and went away, as totally unknown as before. Weeks elapsed and things went well, until last Sunday morning some occasion demanded the landlady's presence in the room of the woman, when to her astonishment she saw the little babe in the bed alone—the mother had left during the night, and nothing has since been heard of her. The mother of the babe is said be young and decidedly good looking, besides being unusually intelligent. Her manners while at the house were the most polished, and her general demeanor that of an educated woman. She reports herself from Long Creek in this county.

Wil. Journal 18th.

An Interesting Case.

A very interesting case, in which the boys of the Southern Confederacy figured, was yesterday before Judge Ingraham, of the Supreme Court, at chambers. When the war broke out George W. Gooch, the defendant in the case, according to the statements made, was in Texas as agent of the large Broadway dry goods house of Lanes, Boyce & Co., entrusted with the collection of one hundred and seventy-one thousand dollars, due them from Texas merchants. On the 4th of March, 1861, Messrs. Lanes, Boyce & Co., turned over their business to Leroy M. Wiley and Frederick N. Lawrence, who are the plaintiffs in the present action. Gooch went on with his collections, and, as he alledges, with the approval of Mr. Wiley, invested about one hundred thousand dollars of the money he collected in Confederate securities, which, of course have proved worthless. A short time since Mr. Gooch returned to this city, and, at the instance of the plaintiffs, was arrested and locked up, in default of twenty-five thousand dollars bail, on charge of misappropriation of the funds of the firm. The proceedings yesterday were in connection with a motion for his release, and there was considerable argument of counsel over the question whether the Confederate bonds turned over to the credit of his employers by Mr. Gooch discharged his indebtedness to them. The decision is reserved.

An Exchange.

What Gov. Holden has done for the State.

In April, 1865, when the Union forces got to Raleigh all was gloom. The rebel government had fled, Jonathan Worth of the number, and the people were sorely perplexed. Gov. Holden was then urged to go to Washington, or to write to the President. He declined to do so, lest his motives might be misconstrued.

The President sent for him, and after a full consultation, appointed him Provisional Governor and entrusted to him the important and delicate duties of reorganizing the State Government. He returned, went vigorously to work and wore himself almost to a shadow in the heavy labors that fell upon him. Every body approved his policy until the coalition of secessionists and ultra war men in Raleigh made up an opposition to him, for their own advancement and for their country's harm.

Through his influence with the President and as the result of his EARNEST, DIRECT and OFT-REPEATED appeals to him, he has secured for the people—

1st. Mails for the people, and this has not been granted to any other State, and only obtained here, by the influence of the Governor.

2nd. The withdrawal of nearly all the troops, and the withdrawal especially of negro troops from the State. This has been effected by the representations of the Governor that our people were loyal and peaceable, and that the troops were not needed. As to the negro troops the Governor thought they were very repugnant to our people, and as soon as he became Provisional Governor he began his appeals to the President to remove them. He has at least been successful.

3rd. The restoration of State property to the value of nearly THREE HUNDRED THOUSAND DOLLARS, which Mr. Worth is now collecting by direction of the Governor.

The Cabinet at Washington restored this property to this State at the earnest solicitation of Gov. Holden. But for his personal influence at Washington, every dollar of it would have been lost.—This amount has enabled us to avoid taxation for nine months to come. It has paid the expenses of the Convention, and will supply the wants of the Legislature. This State had money to pay her delegates, but in the other State's scrip had to be issued.

It is doubtful if any one but Gov. Holden could have obtained this large gift from the Government of the United States. No other State has been so favored.

4th. The Piedmont Rail Road was about to be confiscated, having been built as was alleged by the Confederate Government, and for war purposes.—But through the appeals of Gov. Holden to the President, the Road has been turned over to the Stockholders.

5th. While in Washington hundreds of Confederate officers and privates were released from prison, as the results of his appeals to the President; and afterwards, as the result of his representations, the officers from Colonel down, and all the soldiers, were allowed to take the amnesty oath and vote.

If elected, the past is an evidence of what he can and will do for our people and State in the future. His whole being is wrapt up in the advancement of North-Carolina and the well being of her people, and no effort will be spared which can give to them the restoration of their rights and privileges under the Constitution of our fathers.—Raleigh Standard.

Loss of the Steamer Atlanta—Serious Loss of Life.

New York, Oct. 20.—The bark W. E. Anderson, from Mobile, arrived here this morning with Davie Drexler, a passenger, two firemen, a seaman and cook, of the steamship Atlanta, who were picked up at sea on a piece of the wreck of the Atlanta. Mr. Drexler reports that the Atlanta left New Orleans on the 7th instant, and sprung a leak on the 15th, in a heavy gale, when about 200 miles South of Sandy Hook at 5 o'clock in the afternoon. She broke in three pieces, leaving him and 4 others on one fragment, from which they were rescued after floating nearly two days. The Atlanta had seventeen passengers and a crew of thirty-five persons, all of whom, excepting the above, are supposed to have perished.

The cargo of the Atlanta consisted of 11,078 bales of cotton and 360 boxes of candles. The passengers included Miss Wolf, O. Livingston, Captain M. R. Wilson, Charles S. Smith, D. Myers and lady, H. H. Maloney, W. F. Lansing, D. Dexter, and Robt. Colle.

☞ General Rufus Saxton, in a letter to the President of the National Freedmen's Relief Association, states that the freedmen in South Carolina are in a state of great destitution. Especially do they need clothing.

Wood Haulers Again.

Those of our subscribers who owe us for the Banner and promised to haul us wood to pay their subscription, will confer a great favor by complying with their contrcts at the earliest day possible. We prefer wood, though the money will answer our purposes.

New Fashions.

It will be seen by reference to Mrs. McFarland's card that she has opened at the Mansion House her beautiful and varied assortment of the latest styles of fall and winter fashions. Mrs. McFarland is also an elegant dress maker.

No Difference.

The high tax on spirtuous liquor is no barrier to the distillation of it. There sems to be no end to the manufactory of distilleries. We are kept almost deaf from morring to night by the continual hammering on copper. The preacher sa'd there was no end to the making of book—we think there is no end to the making of stills.

THE CONCORD CASE.

We learn that the argument in this case will begin to-day. Any one can attend who chooses.

Pardons.

The following gentlemen of Rowan have been pardoned:

William G. Mills, Joshua Miller, William T. Martin, Milo A. Roseman, Wm. R. Fraley, B. F. Fraley, J. F. Goodman, Moses W. Jarvis, Jacob Fraley, William Kincaid.

☞George N. Sanders, in his greed for notoriety, was "kidnapped," it will be remembered, at Montreal, and was rescued at the toll gate by the timely and pre-arranged presence of police who overhauled the carriage. The case has just undergone judicial examination, and the only sufferers seem to have been the jury, who were locked up over Sunday and finally discharged because they could not agree. It was shown by Sanders' own testimony to have been a 'made up' affair. George acknowledged that he wanted to exhibit himself in St. Lawrence Hall with handcuffs. Not a particle of evidence was offered to show that the kidnappers were United States agents; and the counsel for their defence urged with reason that Sanders was a fellow conspirator, equally liable with themselves to any charge of disturbing the peace.

GENERAL AMNESTY!—It is generally thought that if our people show a strong Union tendency in the coming elections, if they rebuke secessionism and hostility to the government whenever it shows itself, that the President will extend to North Carolina a general amnesty. Then, how much it is to our interest to select men to represent us that the Northern people, and especially President Johnson, look upon us as true Union men, on true Union platforms, nominated by true Union leaders. Let the people think of it when they go to the polls, and they will vote for the candidate of Judge Reade, Mr. Donnell, B. F. Moore, Bynum, McGehee, John Pool, and the like,

Standard.

THE ARMY IS TO LEAVE!—When North Caralina shall have proved to the President by electing representative Union men in the coming election, and especially by making his Provisional Governor the civil Governor by a handsome majority, that all elements of disaffection and treason have ceased in North Carolina, there will be no longer any cause why the army should be kept here to annoy our people, and it will be disbanded and sent home. Let the people look to it, that the voting is all right, and they may be assured that the army will leave.
